The Reception and the Awards Ceremony for the 2012 Florida Artists Exhibition was held at Sante Fe on Friday, January 13. The Exhibition, the fourth annual statewide competition sponsored by the Gainesville Fine Arts Association, awarded a total of $2,000. Dr. Jack King, Professor of Art at the University of Tampa, juried in the 42 from a total of 212 images and then came to Gainesville to view and then judge the Exhibition. There were 20 artists from Gainesville and 20 artists from elsewhere in the State who were selected to exhibit by the Judge. Professor King remarked that the exhibit as a whole reflected a high degree of professionalism and technical mastery. The Exhibition was coordinated by Roselie Tucker from GFAA and Jayne Grant, Galleries Manager at Sante Fe College and her assistant Kyle Novak.
